

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

About Aspire Arts ministries:

our PURPOSE is to...

Demonstrate a heart of worship

Create an inspiring experience

Communicate God's Truth.

Our team VALUES are...

Authenticity... loving God

Community... loving each other

Excellence... sacrificing our best

Our PRAYER is... D-C-C! It's not about me. It's all about You. Amen!

Aspire TECHNICAL TEAMS include:

DeLights (Lighting Design)

Lighting Crew

MVPs (Media and Video Production)

PowerPoint & Media Crew

Sound Crew

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

Frequently Asked Questions about our DeLights Team (Lighting Design):

Do I need to have professional training? Professional training is a plus but not required. Tech team members are mentored through a training process. A teachable attitude, willingness to learn and eagerness to grow through feedback is the best avenue for training!

What skills should a DeLighter possess? DeLights Team members should be creative, attentive to detail, and enjoy working behind the scenes.

How often are DeLights Team members needed? Stage designs typically change every 4 to 8 weeks. DeLighters are asked to be available 4 times a year to assist with lighting design.

Is any additional training offered? Additional training workshops are provided during the year. Look for team emails and team news in your Sunday program.

Are any additional time commitments involved? DeLights Team members are asked to attend any "All-Team" (for the worship team) "All-Arts" events (1 or 2 a year). Also, optional social and community service events may be planned throughout the year and are communicated well in advance as we hope families will join us!

What if I have more questions? Contact Allison Tubbs, Director of Creative Arts, at allison@fhccmemphis.com or at 901.853.7973.

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

Frequently Asked Questions about our Lighting Crew:

Do I need to have professional training? Professional training is a plus but not required. Tech team members are mentored through a training process. A teachable attitude, willingness to learn and eagerness to grow through feedback is the best avenue for training!

What skills should a Lighting Crew member possess? Members of the Lighting Crew should be creative, sensitive to environments, attentive, a problem solver, flexible, and a team player.

When are rehearsals? Rehearsals are Sunday mornings at 8am. We ask that each worship team member sacrifice "15 minutes on the front end" prior to each rehearsal by studying the programming sheet, listening to mp3s of new songs, and studying dramas that are provided a week in advance on our team website at www.fhccmemphis.com/ministries/arts/teams.

How frequently are team members scheduled, and how are schedules made? Each team member is asked to be available to serve at least two Sundays each month. By the 10th of every month, team members send their available serving dates to their team captain for the following month. The lights captain is Jason Lurie.

Is any additional training offered? Additional training workshops are provided during the year. Look for team emails and team news in your Sunday program.

Are any additional time commitments involved? Lighting Crew members are asked to attend any "All-Team" (for the worship team) "All-Arts" events (1 or 2 a year). Also, optional social and community service events may be planned throughout the year and are communicated well in advance as we hope families will join us!

What if I have more questions? Contact Allison Tubbs, Director of Creative Arts, at allison@fhccmemphis.com or at 901.853.7973.

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

Frequently Asked Questions about our MVPs (Media & Video Production):

Do I need to have professional training? Professional training is a plus but not required. Tech team members are mentored through a training process. A teachable attitude, willingness to learn and eagerness to grow through feedback is the best avenue for training!

What skills should a MVP possess? MVPs should be creative, attentive to detail, accepting of conceptual input, and dependable.

How often are MVPs needed? This is dependent on the message series. MVPs could create 1 project or as many as 4 in a year.

Is any additional training offered? Additional training workshops are provided during the year. Look for team emails and team news in your Sunday program.

Are any additional time commitments involved? MVPs are asked to attend any "All-Arts" events (1 or 2 a year). Also, optional social and community service events may be planned throughout the year and are communicated well in advance as we hope families will join us!

What if I have more questions? Contact Allison Tubbs, Director of Creative Arts, at allison@fhccmemphis.com or at 901.853.7973.

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

Frequently Asked Questions about our PowerPoint & Media Crew:

Do I need to have professional training? Professional training is a plus but not required. Tech team members are mentored through a training process. A teachable attitude, willingness to learn and eagerness to grow through feedback is the best avenue for training!

What skills should a PPT & Media Crew member possess? Members of the PowerPoint & Media Crew should be observant of details, attentive, a problem solver, flexible, and a team player.

When are rehearsals? Rehearsals are on Sunday mornings at 8am. We ask that each worship team member sacrifice "15 minutes on the front end" prior to each rehearsal by studying the programming sheet, listening to mp3s of new songs, and studying dramas that are provided a week in advance on our team website at www.fhccmemphis.com/ministries/arts/teams.

How frequently are team members scheduled, and how are schedules made? Each team member is asked to be available to serve at least two Sundays each month. By the 10th of every month, team members send their available serving dates to their team captain for the following month. The PPT & Media captain is Eelco van Wijk.

Is any additional training offered? Additional training workshops are provided during the year. Look for team emails and team news in your Sunday program.

Are any additional time commitments involved? PowerPoint & Media Crew members are asked to attend any "All-Team" (for the worship team) "All-Arts" events (1 or 2 a year). Also, optional social and community service events may be planned throughout the year and are communicated well in advance as we hope families will join us!

What if I have more questions? Contact Allison Tubbs, Director of Creative Arts, at allison@fhccmemphis.com or at 901.853.7973.

TECHNICAL ARTS

Helping the world know an ageless God through modern technology

Frequently Asked Questions about our Sound Crew:

Do I need to have professional training? Professional training is a plus but not required. Tech team members are mentored through a training process. A teachable attitude, willingness to learn and eagerness to grow through feedback is the best avenue for training!

What skills should a sound crew member possess? Members of the sound crew should be a listener, a problem solver, attentive, flexible, and a team player.

When are rehearsals? Rehearsals are on Sunday mornings at 8am. We ask that each worship team member sacrifice "15 minutes on the front end" prior to each rehearsal by studying the programming sheet, listening to mp3s of new songs, and studying dramas that are provided a week in advance on our team website at www.fhccmemphis.com/ministries/arts/teams.

Do team members attend every Sunday rehearsal? No, only the rehearsals for the Sunday on which they are scheduled to serve.

How frequently are team members scheduled, and how are schedules made? Each team member is asked to be available to serve at least two Sundays each month. By the 10th of every month, team members send their available serving dates to their team captain for the following month. The sound crew captain is Fred Price.

Is any additional training offered? Additional training workshops are provided during the year. Look for team emails and team news in your Sunday program.

Are any additional time commitments involved? Sound Crew members are asked to attend any "All-Team" (for the worship team) "All-Arts" events (1 or 2 a year). Also, optional social and community service events may be planned throughout the year and are communicated well in advance as we hope families will join us!

What if I have more questions? Contact Allison Tubbs, Director of Creative Arts, at allison@fhccmemphis.com or at 901.853.7973.